

Confidentiality Statement and Agreement
Tania M. Lewis Professional Services

Confidentiality: All information between Tania M. Lewis Professional Services and client is held strictly confidential unless:

1. the client authorizes release of information with a signature;
2. Tania M. Lewis Professional Services is ordered by a court to release information;
3. the client presents a physical danger to self or others;
4. child abuse/ neglect are suspected;
5. In these latter two cases, Tania M. Lewis Professional Services is required by law to inform potential victims and legal authorities so that protective measures can be taken.

Confidentiality Agreement

What is discussed with Tania M. Lewis Professional Services is confidential unless and until you (client) give consent to its release, with two exceptions.

Tania M. Lewis Professional Services will need, and am compelled by law, to report to an appropriate other person(s) if:

1. You are in danger of hurting yourself or someone else, and
2. There is reasonable suspicion that a child or vulnerable other person has been abused or neglected.

I (client) have read the foregoing, understand its content and agree to the conditions stipulated herein.

Client Signature: _____

Therapist signature: _____

Date: _____